Define Problem Statements (Customer Problem Statement Template):

Our Credit Card Approval Predictor leverages machine learning algorithms to assess applicant profiles and forecast credit decisions. The primary objective is to decrease manual processing time, boost decision consistency, and deliver a swifter, more unbiased evaluation experience for applicants.

I m (Customer)	Secure a fast and seamless approval for my credit card request.	The final decision hinges on a complex set of personal and financial background checks.	Financial institutions are required to rigorously assess earnings, past credit scores, repayment habits	Apprehensive, stressed, and unsure regarding the ultimate outcome of my application.
